

TECHNICAL DATA SHEET

Revision: 0

Edition: August/1996

STANLUX PASTE 340 N

- Aluminium paste with lamellar particles, recommended for paints that require good reflection effect
- Coarse leafing grade
- Solvent: High Aromatic

SPECIFIED CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------|
| • Solid content | 63% to 67% |
| • Leafing | 70% minimum |
| • Maximum retention in # 325 Mesh | 7.0% |

INFORMATIVE CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| • Average Particles Size- (D50 - Malvern) | 21 microns |
| • Minimum water coverage | 9,000 cm ² /g |
| • Maximum water content | 0.15% |

Typical Uses

- Roof coating
- Maintenance paints
- This product is specially recommended for application in formulations based on resins that are incompatible with aliphatic solvents.

Before using the product, we recommend that you consult the safety information, including the adequate handling and transport, which are available in the product's Material Safety Data Sheet – MSDS. The information mentioned in this technical bulletin represents our current level of knowledge and experience, but shall not be considered as a guarantee. It is the user's responsibility to assure the adequate use of the product, since Aldoro will not accept liability on any type of loss or damage which may arise due to the use of this information or application of the product. Aldoro reserves itself the right of changing, without prior notice, any data contained in this bulletin, resulting from adjustment, development or evolution of the production process.
